Medieval and Modern Languages Faculty Undergraduate Open Days
as part of the University of Oxford Open Days

28th & 29th June 2017
Main Hall, Taylor Institution
(on the corner of Beaumont Street and St Giles, OX1 3NA)
10.30am-4.30pm

PROGRAMME

Tutors representing a range of Modern Languages will be present during the day to provide information and respond to questions on applying for and studying Modern Languages and Joint Schools degrees at Oxford.*

10.30am-12.00pm: presentation by tutors and current students followed by time for general Q&A. Please book a place to attend this session, registering via the Faculty's website: <http://www.mod-langs.ox.ac.uk/open-days>

2.00pm-3.00pm: informal 'drop-in'. Tutors will be available in this period to answer any individual questions about our courses and the application process. No booking is needed.

3.00pm-4.30pm: presentation by tutors and current students followed by time for general Q&A. Please book a place to attend this session, registering via the Faculty's website: <http://www.mod-langs.ox.ac.uk/open-days>

The Medieval and Modern Languages Faculty's main library, also at the Taylor Institution, will be open in the afternoon on both days.

We look forward to welcoming you to the Medieval and Modern Languages Faculty Undergraduate Open Days.

*Tutors will be happy to receive questions about any subject or combination; please note that the range of specific subject representatives available will be greatest in the morning and afternoon formal sessions.

(Please note: The same session is repeated at 10.30 am and 3.00 pm on the 28th & 29th June 2017).
