Medieval and Modern Languages Faculty Undergraduate Open Days

as part of the University of Oxford Open Days

27th & 28th June 2018

Main Hall, Taylor Institution

(on the corner of Beaumont Street and St Giles, OX1 3NA)

10.30am-4.30pm

PROGRAMME

Tutors representing a range of Modern Languages will be present during the day to provide information and respond to questions on applying for and studying Modern Languages and Joint Schools degrees at Oxford.*

10.30am-12.00pm: presentation by tutors and current students followed by time for general Q&A. Please book a place to attend this session, registering via the Faculty's website: <http://www.mod-langs.ox.ac.uk/schools/meet-us>

2.00pm-3.00pm: informal 'drop-in'. Tutors will be available in this period to answer any individual questions about our courses and the application process. No booking is needed.

3.00pm-4.30pm: presentation by tutors and current students followed by time for general Q&A. This is a repeat of the morning session. Please book a place to attend this session, registering via the Faculty's website: <http://www.mod-langs.ox.ac.uk/schools/meet-us>

*Tutors will be happy to receive questions about any subject or combination; please note that the range of specific subject representatives available will be greatest in the morning and afternoon formal sessions.

(Please note: The same session is repeated at 10.30 am and 3.00 pm on the 27th & 28th June 2018. Please do not book places for both the morning and afternoon sessions).

We look forward to meeting you!
