

FROM 'STASILAND' TO 'OSTALGIE': REMEMBERING THE GDR - 20 YEARS ON.

20th Jan - 10 Mar 2009.

All seminars will take place at 17:30 in the Noël Salter Room, New College.

PROGRAMME

Week 1 Tue 20th Jan	Prof. Wolfgang Emmerich (Bremen) Cultural Memory East / West: Is what belongs together growing together?
Week 2 Tue 27th Jan	Prof. T.J. Reed (Oxford) Revisiting the Wende.
Week 3 Tue 3rd Feb	Prof. Katrin Kohl (Oxford) Conceptualising the GDR – 20 Years After.
Week 4 Tue 10th Feb	Dr Peter Thompson (Sheffield/Oxford) 'Die unheimliche Heimat': The GDR as the Presence and Absence of Hope.
Week 5 Tue 17th Feb	Dr Daniela Berghahn (RHUL) Remembering the Stasi: from DEFA Gegenwartsfilm to the Stasi fairytale Das Leben der Anderen.
Week 6 Tue 24th Feb	Dr Lyn Marven (Liverpool) 'Berlin ist bekannt [...] für die Mauer, die es aber nicht mehr gibt'(Monika Maron): the persistence of East Berlin in the contemporary city.
Week 7 Tue 3rd Mar	Dr Chloe Paver (Exeter) Memory and Place in the New Bundesländer.
Week 8 Tue 10th Mar	Prof. Timothy Garton-Ash (Oxford) 'A Footnote in World History': The GDR as Memory, Myth and History.

Professor Jan-Werner Müller (Princeton) will give a special lecture on Thursday May 21st (Trinity Term, week 4):
'Just another Vergangenheitsbewältigung? Coming to terms with the GDR Past'.