

University of Oxford
History and Modern Language Study Day

Monday 25th May 2026
St Anne's College, Oxford

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

- 10.00 Arrival and welcome at St Anne's College (56 Woodstock Road, Oxford, OX2 6HS)
- 10.15 History and Modern Languages course overview and Q&A
An overview of the History and Modern Languages course at Oxford and a chance to ask questions to current students.
- 11.00 Languages academic sessions
A taste of studying languages at Oxford, whether that's post-A-level or from scratch (or both!).
- 12.30 Lunch
- 13.15 Taster lecture
An opportunity to experience a university lecture on a topic that is relevant to the study of both History and Modern Languages.
- 13.45 History academic session
A taste of studying History at Oxford, with a focus on analysing primary sources.
- 14.30 Tour of St Anne's College
A chance to learn more about Oxford colleges and why they are great!
- 15.00 Refreshment break
- 15.30 Next steps talk and Q&A
An overview of the admissions process for History and Modern Languages degrees at Oxford and a chance to ask final questions to current students and staff.
- 16.00 Departure

Please get in touch with outreach@history.ox.ac.uk if you have any questions.