

University of Oxford
Modern Languages Open Day
Saturday 17th May 2025
Examination Schools, High Street, OX1 4BG

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

10.30 Registration at Examination Schools, High Street, Oxford
Tea and coffee will be available during the registration period.

11.15 Modern Languages at Oxford

An introduction to the Modern Languages Faculty, our courses, teaching, and resources, the year abroad, and where a Modern Languages degree from Oxford can take you.

Due to restricted places, only one parent/guardian/teacher may accompany each student for the morning session. Companions will be hosted in the North Schools with access to the main content via an audio-visual relay.

Followed by Q&A session for prospective applicants

A chance for attendees to ask questions to our panel of academics, current Modern Languages undergraduates, and Faculty staff members.

12.30 Disperse for lunch

We are unfortunately unable to provide lunch for attendees. You are welcome to bring your own food and drink. However, there is a strict policy that only water may be consumed in the lecture theatres and classrooms in the Examination Schools.

14.00-15.00 Q&A session for parents/guardians/teachers

A session dedicated to those supporting prospective students through the University/Oxford application process and beyond, and a chance to ask any questions to our Faculty staff members.

14.00-16.00 Subject-specific sessions (repeated at 14.00, 14.40 and 15.20):

An opportunity to learn more about the specific languages and subjects we offer and to ask your questions to our tutors and current undergraduates. The following subjects will be available:

- French
- Spanish
- Russian
- Modern Greek*
- Czech with Slovak*
- Joint Schools (e.g. History, Philosophy)
- German
- Italian
- Portuguese
- Polish*
- Linguistics

 Please note, these subject sessions will only run twice, at 14.40 and 15.20.*

Please note, this programme is provisional: some timings and details may change between now and the event.
