

Faculty of Medieval and Modern Languages SEPTEMBER OPEN DAY PROGRAMME

Taylor Institution Library
(St Giles', OX1 3NA)

Modern Languages at Oxford 'drop-in'

10am-12.30pm

Main Hall

Stalls for each of our languages will be set up around the hall and staffed by current tutors and undergraduates. Drop in to ask them questions about our languages courses and the application process.*

*French, Spanish, German, Italian, Portuguese, Russian/Slavonic, Linguistics.
Prospective students wanting to meet tutors of Czech with Slovak, Greek, and/or Polish are invited to email schools.liaison@mod-langs.ox.ac.uk to arrange an online meeting.

Library tours

9.30am | 12.35pm | 2.15pm | 2.45pm

20-minute tours of our dedicated Modern Languages library. Max. 15 people per tour, allocated on a first come, first served basis.

Please note: there is no need to book to attend the drop-in or tours. Priority will be given to prospective students in the case of oversubscription.

If you have any accessibility requirements or questions about our programme, please email schools.liaison@mod-langs.ox.ac.uk.

This programme is indicative and some details may change between now and the Open Day.