

Faculty of Medieval and Modern Languages SEPTEMBER OPEN DAY PROGRAMME

The Schwarzman Centre for the Humanities | 9am-1pm

In Oxford's brand-new home for the Humanities, we will be offering a range of sessions led by tutors, current students, and Faculty staff to provide information about applying for and studying Modern Languages degrees at Oxford.

9am-1pm: Modern Languages subject stall | The Great Hall (Ground Floor)

Faculty staff and current undergraduates will be available during this period to answer questions about applying to and studying Modern Languages at Oxford.

9:30am-10:15am: 'Modern Languages at Oxford' | Lecture Theatre (Basement)

A presentation about Oxford's Modern Languages Faculty and our courses, followed by time for a general Q&A with tutors and current students.

10:45-12:15: Meet the tutors 'drop-in' sessions | Various seminar rooms

Tutors will be available for an hour slot (see below) to answer questions about our courses and the application process. Please note: in the case that these sessions are oversubscribed, prospective students will be prioritised over any companions.

10:45-11:45: French, German and Portuguese

11:15-12:15: Spanish, Slavonic (Russian, Czech, Polish) and Italian

The Taylor Institution Library | 9am-3pm

Commonly known as the Taylorian, the Taylor Institution Library is Oxford's centre for the study of Modern European languages and literatures.

9:00am | 12:35pm | 2:15pm | 2:45pm: Library tours | Meeting point: St Giles' entrance hall

20-minute tours of our Modern Languages Library. Max. 15 people per tour, allocated on a first come, first served basis.

*Please note: there is no need to book to attend these talks. Places will be allocated on a first come, first served basis. If you have any questions or accessibility requirements, please email schools.liaison@mod-langs.ox.ac.uk.
